

JOHN LEWIS WILCOX

John Lewis Wilcox, 64, for many years employed as an attendant by the Green Lawn Cemetery Association, died early Tuesday morning from paralysis at his home, 1631 Harrisburg pike, following a two years' illness.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Nellie Wilcox; two daughters, Mrs. Grace Ribbel, Grove City, and Mrs. Anne Harold, Los Angeles, Calif.; two sons, Charles, Briggsdale, and Frank Wilcox, 94 Meek avenue; a brother, Albert C. Wilcox, New Dover, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held in the Briggsdale M. E. Church at 2 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery by Glenn L. Myers.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday in Briggsdale M. E. Church for JOHN LEWIS WILCOX, 64, for many years employed by the Green Lawn Cemetery Association, who died Tuesday at his home, 1631 Harrisburg Pk., following two years' illness. Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery by Glenn L. Myers. Mr. Wilcox is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie Wilcox, two daughters, Mrs. Grace Ribbel, Grove City, and Mrs. Anne Harold, Los Angeles, Calif.; two sons, Charles, Briggsdale, and Frank Wilcox, 34 Meek Ave.; a brother, Albert C. Wilcox, New Dover, and three grandchildren.